

Time-Tested Vendor Management Solutions for the Modern Extended Workforce

Powering Contingent Workforce Programs With Proven Technology Backed By Industry Experts

VectorVMS combines innovative and trusted technology with in-depth industry expertise to create specialized contingent workforce programs. We work closely with clients and partners—drawing on 175+ years of collective experience to combine the right people, processes, and technologies while designing and implementing best-fit vendor management solutions.

Configurable, Reliable Technology

Our configurable platform enables organizations to have full visibility into their contingent labor programs, giving you the confidence to maintain compliance, reduce costs and drive efficiency in your extended workforce.

Key Benefits:

- Most organizations see a 5-15% cost saving when they implement VectorVMS
- Reduces risk when integrating background checks directly into the platform
- Drastically reduces errors that occur when using email and spreadsheets to manage your contingent workforce

- Easily compare candidates and track vendor performance
- Access to a robust library of eLearning, plus in-depth online training courses
- Responsive support team with 100% customer satisfaction

Flexible Delivery Models

VectorVMS delivery models are the most flexible in the industry. We empower clients to manage strategic sourcing entirely in-house or through one of our many trusted managed service providers (MSPs). Plus, with our Shared Managed Services (SMS) program, we augment client resources via a team of experienced program managers who provide operational support, white-glove service, and strategic advice on industry best practices.

Technology License

If you manage your program in-house and just need the right technology to level up, we will work with you to implement and configure the platform to your needs.

Shared Managed Services

Our unique hybrid service model allows you to maintain ownership of your extended workforce program while receiving your choice of services and expertise.

Managed Service Provider (MSP)

Whether you currently have an MSP or need help finding one, we partner with reputable providers to ensure your program is efficient and streamlined.
